

A CATHOLIC PARLIAMENTARY LIAISON OFFICE WEBINAR ON:

Rethinking ECONOMIC POLICY in the case of INFORMAL TRADERS

The informal trading sector provides vital income for marginalised communities and brings essential goods and services closer to where people live. Yet traders remain on the periphery of policy attention. Urban management often treats them as a problem to control rather than as economic actors to engage.

Thursday 25th JUNE 2026

11h00 – 12h30

Online

SPEAKER: Dr David Francis

Senior Researcher: Southern Centre for Inequalities Studies, University of the Witwatersrand

REGISTER NOW

<https://tinyurl.com/y53jvxct>